

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Hello. My name is Peter Abbondanzo. I've been creating art before I could even walk on two feet. Since then, I have been designing graphics and developing websites for clients across the globe. When I could still count my age on two hands, I fancied myself to endless access of Adobe's wonderful Photoshop, Illustrator, and After Effects; programs that I continue to use today.

After spending nearly all of my life with computers, I have taken to teaching myself everything I possibly can about them. From the hardware to the software, I make known every layer used for such an invention to work.

My most incredible asset is my ability to work with others to achieve a common goal. I continuously work to develop my leadership skills in the working environment. I strive to create perfection where others do not look.
